TRENTON PHOENIX PHOTOGRAPHY - COMMERCIAL IMAGE USE LICENSE

Copyright © Trenton Phoenix Media LLC / Trenton Phoenix Photography. All rights reserved.

Your purchase or authorized download of an image under the Commercial Use price list grants the purchasing individual, business, organization, or other legal entity ("Licensee") a perpetual, worldwide, non-exclusive, non-transferable license to use the purchased image for the Licensee's own lawful commercial, promotional, organizational, informational, and professional purposes, subject to the terms below.

Copyright and ownership of the photograph remain with Trenton Phoenix Media LLC / Trenton Phoenix Photography ("Photographer"). Purchase of a Commercial Use license does not constitute a sale or transfer of copyright.

PERMITTED COMMERCIAL USES

The Licensee may reproduce, display, publish, and distribute the licensed image in connection with its own business or organizational activities. Permitted uses include websites and digital publications; organic social-media content; email marketing and newsletters; brochures, catalogs, flyers, sell sheets, menus, programs, and other printed collateral; presentations, training materials, and internal communications; trade-show, conference, event, and point-of-sale displays; posters, banners, signage, and other large-format commercial printing; press releases, media materials, and company or organizational news; and advertisements and other marketing or promotional materials, subject to the endorsement and third-party-rights provisions below.

The Licensee may make an unlimited number of reproductions reasonably necessary for these authorized uses.

PROFESSIONAL PRINTING AND SERVICE PROVIDERS

The Licensee may provide the licensed image to professional printers, commercial print shops, graphic designers, advertising or marketing agencies, web developers, publishers, sign manufacturers, and similar service providers solely as necessary to produce an authorized use for the Licensee.

Such service providers receive no independent license or ownership interest in the image and may not retain, reuse, sell, license, publish, or distribute the image for their own purposes or for another client.

REASONABLE EDITING

The Licensee may crop, resize, reformat, place text or graphics over or alongside the image, incorporate the image into a larger design, and make reasonable color, tonal, or layout adjustments necessary for an authorized use.

The image may not be materially altered in a deceptive, defamatory, unlawful, or misleading manner or used to create a false representation of the original photograph or its subjects.

RESTRICTIONS

Unless separately authorized in writing by the Photographer, the Licensee may not sell, resell, sublicense, assign, gift, transfer, or distribute the licensed image as a standalone digital or physical photographic asset.

The Licensee may not provide the image to another business, organization, customer, vendor, sponsor, association, or other third party for that party's independent use.

The Licensee may not upload or distribute the image through a stock-photography library, stock-media service, template marketplace, digital-asset library, or similar repository.

The Licensee may not sell merchandise, templates, stock products, or other goods where the photograph itself is the principal or independently marketable component of the product.

The Licensee may not use the image to train, develop, test, or supply an artificial-intelligence or machine-learning model or dataset.

The Licensee may not claim authorship, copyright ownership, or exclusive rights in the photograph.

The Licensee may not remove or alter embedded copyright or ownership metadata for the purpose of concealing the Photographer's authorship.

ENDORSEMENTS, LIKENESS RIGHTS, AND THIRD-PARTY RIGHTS

This license grants rights in the Photographer's copyrighted photograph. It does not independently grant ownership or permission concerning another person's name, likeness, publicity rights, trademarks, copyrighted artwork, private property, or other third-party rights that may appear within the photograph.

The Licensee may not use an identifiable person depicted in the photograph in a manner that falsely states or implies that the person personally endorses, recommends, sponsors, or serves as a spokesperson for a product, service, company, political position, or unrelated organization.

Uses principally relying upon an identifiable individual as a testimonial, spokesperson, product endorsement, or similar endorsement-style advertisement may require additional permission or a separate release from the depicted individual or other applicable rights holder.

The Licensee is responsible for determining whether additional permissions are required for its particular intended use.

PAID ADVERTISING

This Commercial Use license permits ordinary advertising and promotional use by the Licensee, including paid or boosted distribution of materials otherwise authorized by this license, provided the use complies with the endorsement, likeness, and third-party-rights provisions above.

COPYRIGHT AND RESERVED RIGHTS

Trenton Phoenix Media LLC / Trenton Phoenix Photography retains all copyright and ownership rights in the photograph and all rights not expressly granted by this license.

This license is non-exclusive. The Photographer may continue to display, publish, reproduce, sell, license, and otherwise use the photograph and may license the same photograph to other parties, subject to any separate written confidentiality, privacy, exclusivity, or project-specific agreement.

Photo credit is not required unless separately agreed in writing. Where practical, credit as "Trenton Phoenix Photography" is appreciated.

SCOPE OF PURCHASE

An Individual Commercial Use purchase licenses only the specific image purchased.

A Whole Gallery Commercial Use purchase licenses the images contained within the specific purchased gallery at the time of purchase. It does not grant rights to other galleries, photographs subsequently added to another gallery, or future photographs created by the Photographer.

Purchase of a Commercial Use license does not create exclusivity, transfer copyright ownership, or obligate the Photographer to provide additional photographs, services, editing, releases, or future access to a gallery.

ACCEPTANCE

By purchasing, downloading, or using an image provided under the Commercial Use price list, the Licensee acknowledges and agrees to this Commercial Image Use License.

For rights beyond those granted here, including exclusivity, copyright acquisition, third-party sublicensing, merchandise licensing, or other specialized uses, contact Trenton Phoenix Photography for a separate written license.
